

THE LITTLE SISTERS OF THE POOR PRESENT...

SCYTHIAN

RUNA

IN CONCERT

The Little Sisters of the Poor present a bit of heaven for Irish music lovers, with two great bands playing at our Spring Concert! Opening the event will be RUNA, interweaving Irish and Scottish folk music with the lush harmonies and intoxicating rhythms of jazz, bluegrass, flamenco and blues. Our featured group, SCYTHIAN, will then have everyone out of their seats as they play roots music from Celtic, Eastern European and Appalachian traditions with thunderous energy, technical prowess, and storytelling songwriting. Join us for an enjoyable night of music, dancing, and goodwill, as we raise funds for the elderly poor of Holy Family Home!

SATURDAY, APRIL 1, 2017

Villanova University
Jack Nevin Field House

800 Lancaster Ave., Villanova, PA

6:00 p.m. Doors open and food available

7:30 -8:30 pm - Runa

8:30-9:15 pm - Break

9:15-10:45 pm - Scythian

$50.00 per person

($10 kids 12 and under, $20 students)

Includes general admission, food, drinks
(valid ID required), silent auction

(NO FOOD OR DRINK SERVED AFTER INTERMISSION)

Admission tickets will not be mailed out.

*Please indicate your name on reply card
for the reservation list!*

Honoring Patty & Jimmy Shaughnessy

Benefiting The Elderly Residents of Holy Family Home

For more information: 215-729-5153 ext. 1115

www.littlesistersofthepoorphiladelphia.org

