

LITTLE SISTERS OF THE POOR SPRING CONCERT

SCYTHIAN in Concert!!

Named after Ukrainian nomads, SCYTHIAN plays immigrant rock with thunderous energy, technical prowess, and storytelling songwriting, beckoning crowds into a barn-dance rock concert experience. Celebrating 10 years of getting people dancing all night, SCYTHIAN is back as our concert feature, as we raise much needed funds for our work of caring for the elderly poor of Holy Family Home in southwest Philadelphia. Come join us for a great night of fun and good will!

SATURDAY, APRIL 11, 2015

Villanova University – Jack Nevin Field House

800 Lancaster Ave., Villanova, PA

6:00 p.m. – Doors open and food available

8:00 p.m. – 11:00 p.m. – Concert, with an intermission
(no food or drinks available after intermission)

$50.00 per person ($10 kids 12 and under, $20 students)
includes general admission, food, drinks (valid ID required), silent auction

For more informaton: 215-729-5153 ext. 1115

www.littlesistersofthepoorphiladelphia.org

Benefiting the Elderly Residents of Holy Family Home

Printing courtesy of Today's Graphics, Inc.